

1964'S DEMO DERBY 50TH ANNIVERSARY EDITION ON DVD

UGLY THINGS MAGAZINE, WINTER 2016/17

Pike Productions, 1963, 28-minute theatrical featurette (DVD release by Otherworld Cottage Industries, 2013)

“Pike has issued a DVD of his father’s ‘crash action featurette’ DEMO DERBY, filmed in Boston in 1963 and screened in theaters nationwide the following year as the opening feature for A Hard Day’s Night. ‘Filmed in New England, USA,’ it’s a 30-minute documentary about Boston’s demolition derby scene--its drivers, cars and fans--with a terrific, rockin’ title number by Travis Pike and Arthur Korb, and performed by The Rondels. Bonus features include a 10-minute interview with Pike’s father about the making of the film, as well as the original theatrical trailer.” (MS)
